

ANDREA CHIOATTO – Board Member

Andrea Chioatto graduated honours in Business Administration from Università Bocconi.

Before joining the Intesa Group, he held positions of responsibility with multinational companies (Unilever and UCI) after working in auditing and balance sheet auditing.

He subsequently served as the Head of Cost Control, SLA, and Investments of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, reporting directly to the CFO, and was involved in the establishment of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group Services (ISGS) consortium company.

In 2013 and 2014, he was Head of Product Company Management in charge of creating the Polo della Finanza Impresa (Mediocredito, Leasing, and Factoring) within the Banca dei Territori division. He initiated the incorporation of the Consumer Credit sector into Intesa Sanpaolo, as well as the spin-off of Medium and Long-Term Non-Performing Loans to Capital Light Bank.

Since July 2015, he has been the General Co-Director and Head of the Operational and Financial Governance Area of Fideuram – Intesa Sanpaolo Private Banking S.p.A.

He was a member of the Intesa Sanpaolo Private Bank (Suisse) SA and Banque Morval SA Boards of Directors. He has been a member of the Intesa Sanpaolo Private Bank (Suisse) Morval SA Board of Directors since 2019.